

THE DEADLY MENACE OF PSEUDO LIBERALS

by J. Edgar Hoover

Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

COMMUNIST subversion and defiance of the law threaten the very foundations of our society. Perhaps to some this may be considered a "cold" war but, in reality, it is an exceedingly "hot" one. It is tragic that too many of our people are not taking the danger signals seriously.

There are those in this country who, through ignorance or design, confuse the basic issues of our constitutional freedom and muddy the waters of national unity. With the unprecedented material advantages of today, an attitude of complacency seems to have permeated the national mind to an almost unbelievable extent. There is a trend of softness toward wrong-doing which can cause irreparable harm. We are being stifled by technicalities and by the throwing of roadblocks in the pathway of our traditional methods of justice.

We need to dedicate ourselves anew to the perpetuation of our American heritage, and to a nationwide recognition campaign to bring about a renewed appreciation of this heart-stirring heritage. It is disheartening that more young people appear to know the words of popular "soap-jingles" than the meaningful words of "The Star-Spangled Banner." It is time for all of us to reacquaint ourselves with our historical treasures and the moral values which inspired our forefathers to lead our country to the pinnacle of world leadership.

Eleven years ago our country had just emerged victorious from a devastating world conflict. As we then turned our attention to the problems confronting our Nation, we observed the rapidly growing, menacing two-headed monster of subversion and lawlessness. During the year 1946, 1,685,203 major crimes were reported by local, county and state law enforcement agencies in this country. In January, 1947, Communist Party membership in the United States was recorded as 74,000.

Since 1946, we have made tremendous forward strides in many fields. Our technological achievements stagger the imagination. Let us, however, examine our progress with regard to other problems which confronted us in that period.

Look at your watch as it ticks off 12 seconds. In that span a major crime has been committed somewhere in the United States.

Last year a shocking total of 2,563,150 major crimes was reported by the Nation's police. The number is increasing this year. Actual Communist Party membership has declined. Thus, with an estimated population increase during the past eleven years of some thirty million people, it would appear that we are losing the fight on crime and winning the battle against subversion. I assure you, nothing could be further from the truth. To give up in the war on crime or to ease up in the battle against subversion will bring national disaster.

THE FIGHT against lawlessness, while discouraging, is not a hopeless one. Conversely, the subversive movement today actually presents a far more deadly menace than the Communist Party membership figure would indicate. Even bearing in mind the well-known communist claim that for every actual dues-paying member there are ten or more individuals prepared and anxious to do their bidding, the total still may not appear too formidable. Yet, history tells us of the devastation which a handful of fanatics strategically placed can bring. When we dismiss the menace of communism as the activity of a small dissident group, we move into a "fool's paradise."

Whatever the surface indications of Party discord, the FBI investigations have shown that there is a hard core of conspiratorial Reds unaffected by Party differences and controlled by the heavy hand of Moscow. As long as this undercover "apparatus" exists, the communist threat cannot be brushed aside as trivial or fanciful. It is a continuing, aggressive force constantly at work to suborn and subvert the American people.

The United States is hamstrung by maudlin sentiment of some and sinister designs of others. Forces have been at work in the United States since the illegitimate birth of atheistic communism, which seek to weaken and destroy us. Soviet Communist Party leader Nikita Khrushchev, in fact, reiterated this goal when he predicted in his well-publicized June television interview that your grandchildren would live under the heel of communist socialism. The influence of the subversive conspiracy has been almost unbelievable—reaching deep into practically every walk of life. To gauge the effectiveness of this campaign, we need only to note the widespread and vociferous clamor raised whenever our government attempts to deal firmly against the subversive threat.

Certain organizations obviously dedicate their efforts to thwart the very concepts of security. They vehemently oppose methods to gain this security and it is obvious that their aim is to destroy it. They protest that they are fighting for freedom, but in reality, they seek license. They hypocritically bar communists from their membership, but they seem to hate all persons who abhor communists and communism. They claim to be anticommunist but they launch attacks against Congressional legislation designed to curb communism. They distort and misrepresent and ridicule the Government's security program. They lobby and exert pressure on the leaders of Government both in the Legislative and Executive Branches.

Some such organizations are supported by tax-exempt funds. Others are infiltrated by a hard core of propagandists—small but articulate—whose real aims do not represent those of the hundreds of otherwise well-meaning Americans who are supporting such organizations. The recent campaign to open the files of the FBI is a case in point. The refusal to recognize the right of the public welfare and the proper use of common sense result too often in a prostitution of the law in favor of evil.

Sadly, the cult of the pseudo-liberal, which is anything but liberal, continues to float about in the pink-tinted atmosphere of patriotic irresponsibility and remains strangely silent when another Nation such as Hungary is pillaged, plundered, and reduced to virtual serfdom by barbaric communism.

EVERY pseudo-liberal in this country should look inside his heart and give heed to the destruction he may be bringing upon the very country that permits him to enjoy this very freedom of thought.

You must labor under no misconception concerning the true nature of the enemy of the free world. Over the years the FBI has been a frequent target of the communists and their dupes; chosen points of attack for the phony "liberals," the fellow travelers and those of similar ilk. There is no better patriotic recommendation than to be attacked by obstructionists such as these. It is equally possible to be proud of one's enemies—or to be proud of the reasons for their enmity.

To dismiss lightly the existence of the subversive threat in the United States is to deliberately commit national suicide. In some quarters we are surely doing just this. It would be the worst kind of folly to allow the spy and subversive immunity through technical rather than logical interpretation of the law, while they plot the destruction of our democratic form of government. The American communists and their dupes and fellow travelers are the skirmishing lines of the Soviet conspiracy against our Nation. An underground movement, composed of hard-core, fanatical, dedicated communists, and their brain-washed followers, is doggedly at work in our country today.

Now, as never before, the propaganda drums of peaceful coexistence are being sounded throughout the world. The startling events of the past several months have, as in the case of Hungary, reminded the world that drums of the Kremlin are cunningly camouflaged war drums, tuned to deceive the gullible and naive.

As Lenin, the present idol of Khrushchev and his cohorts, said, "We do not believe in external morality and we expose all fables about morality." Lenin's instructions include low blows, brass knuckles and spikes. Play it dirty or you are not a communist. In every trouble spot on the face of the globe, Lenin's injunctions are being followed. Communists shift from violence, and threat of violence, to rely upon division, enticement and duplicity.

AS FOR the new-look melody of our home-grown advocates of traitorous deceit, we need only examine the outcome of the Sixteenth National Convention of the Communist Party of the United States last February to see that their aims have not changed, that this conspiratorial group's fundamental adherence to the Party line has remained steadfast and that this small odorous animal has not lost the white stripe on its back after all.

Despite the Party's claims of independence from Moscow, let us look at its February National Convention, one of the most carefully rigged fraudulent shows ever staged. There it gave the lie to the masters of the "big lie." It retains its old name, traditional organization and the majority of its old leadership. In addition, it reaffirmed its adherence to the basic concepts of Marxism-Leninism. It refused to take a stand against the rape of Hungary, against tyranny and anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union. At no time did it disavow its dependence upon or loyalty to the Soviet Union.

The Russian conspirators smile, then frown; they zig, then zag, but they never really deviate. Bloody world revolution is their final goal. They regard America as the Nation which must be destroyed. Do not doubt it.

As dedicated Americans, we must be eternally vigilant; we must continue to face the facts of life and exert every effort to alert our fellow citizens to the perils of public apathy. To be preoccupied with the dangers of possible atomic destruction and to forget the deadly dangers facing us from within are folly indeed.

There is today a vicious movement to undermine the traditional spiritual and moral principles of our Nation. Freedom, divorced from authority and discipline, is a frightening thing and is the first step to total moral degeneration.

Worship of God, dependence upon God's guidance and prayer to God have been characteristics of American life since the early decades of the 17th century.

THE TIME is opportune to reform America of the inspiring story of our glorious democratic history of liberty, freedom, tolerance and justice. We must pass on to our young people the greatness that is America's. We must remind all of our citizens of the wealth of our Nation's moral and spiritual treasures. By reflecting upon the glories of our past, we can advance together to even greater heights of achievement in the future.

We can eradicate the blighting slums of juvenile crime and repel, by our own excellent example of united strength, the threats of subversive destruction. In moral and spiritual issues, there can be no neutrality.

An informed citizenry, alert to guard our heritage, will guarantee strengthened sinews and heightened resolve that our flag on high will never be replaced with the butcher-red emblem of barbarous, godless communist slavery. Ours must ever be the glorious red, white and blue symbol of American freedom and liberty.

We are today challenged to fortify the moral and spiritual bulwarks of our country. It must start with the individual.

From Mr. Hoover's too little publicized speech before the National Convention of the American Legion.

East Side Manhattan satisfies the requirements for a site that is a "sufficient distance from the nearest large metropolis."

THE SITE selection work of the United Nations Headquarters Commission began with the decision at London in 1945 to limit the choice of site to the east coast of the United States. Having considered over fifty localities in the United States, the Permanent Headquarters Committee began a detailed study of twenty-six locations in the Westchester-Fairfield area north of New York City. The committee report, submitted in August of 1946, recommended five sites, each carefully analyzed, based on the assumption that the United Nations would require approximately 2, 5, 10, 20 or 40 square miles of land. The committee subsequently prepared equally
